Dear Dr. Kennedy: Karen

Enclosed please find a signed original copy of an articulation agreement between Borough of Manhattan Community College's A.A.S. in Accounting and Queens College's B.A. in Accounting.

Thank you for all the hard work that you put into making this project beneficial to both our institutions and our students.

Respectfully yours,

Program: Accounting

Degree: A.A.S.

Receiving College: Queens College (QC)

Department: Accounting and Information Systems

Program: Accounting

Degree: B.A.

Credits Required for Degree: 120

Admission requirements to senior college program: (e.g., degree requirement, minimum GPA, audition or portfolio, examination results):

Based on existing CUNY regulations between senior and community colleges, students will be admitted to QC upon successful graduation from BMCC. If they have satisfactorily completed the 60 credits (see next page) required at BMCC, students are assured of uninterrupted articulated matriculation to QC. At Queens College, a minimum grade of C- must be earned in each accounting and business law course in order to progress to the next course in the accounting sequence. Otherwise, the course with the grade below C- must be retaken until a minimum of C- is earned. However, credit for the course will be given only once. Additionally, no required or elective courses in the undergraduate accounting major may be taken on a pass/fail basis. Also, a C average (2.0) must be earned for all courses usable for the major.

Total credits granted toward the baccalaureate degree: 60

Total additional credits required at the senior college to complete the baccalaureate degree: 60
