Procedures for review, updating, modifying or terminating agreement:

LAGCC Theatre faculty will annually review core curriculum courses in the Theatre major. Any changes in curriculum will be forwarded to the theatre designee at Queens College for review and comments. All changes in curriculum will be mutually agreed upon in order to maintain course transferability between LAGCC and QC. Termination of the articulation agreement must be agreed upon by both LAGCC and QC.

Procedures for evaluating agreement, e.g., tracking the number of students who transfer under the articulation agreement and their success:

LAGCC's Theatre faculty will work with the Transfer Services Office to identify students in the Theatre Major who transfer to QC. The theatre designee at QC will track the students and inform LAGCC of their progress towards degree completion.

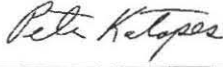

Sending and receiving college procedures for publicizing agreement, e.g., college catalogs, transfer advisers, Websites:

LAGCC will advertise this articulation agreement through the Transfer Services Office, as well as, at LAGCC recruitment events, in the college catalog, on the College's website.

Additional Information:

The three credits earned for CEP121 at LAGCC will transfer to QC as three elective credits only if the student has earned the AA in Theatre Degree from LAGCC before transferring to QC.

Effective Date: September 2011
