

February 9, 2009

Dr. Lily Shohat, Chairperson
Social Science Department
LaGuardia Community College
31-10 Thomson Avenue
Long Island City, NY 11101

Dear Dr. Shohat:

The Urban Studies Department at Queens College is pleased to support a Liberal Arts Associate of Arts Option in Urban Studies at LaGuardia Community College and to accept up to 15 credits in Urban Studies courses towards the Queens College Urban Studies major.

We confirm the following exact equivalencies between LaGuardia and our department. These credits can count towards the Queens College Urban Studies major.

La Guardia CC Urban Studies course	is equivalent to	QC Urban Studies course
HSN 103 Community Dynamics		URBST 102 Urban Issues: Services and Institutions
SCN 194 AIDS in NYC		URBST 233 AIDS and Public Policy
SCN 195 Community Health		URBST 132 US Health Services and Policy
SSN 103 Introduction to Labor and Community Organizing		URBST 210 Urban Protest Movements
SSN 182 Urban Anthropology		URBST 113 Urban Subcultures
SSN 183 History of Minorities		URBST 202 Racial and Ethnic Minorities in Urban America
SSN 184 Environmental Psychology		URBST 14 Urban Aesthetics
SSN 187 Urban Sociology		URBST 106 Cultural and Historical Development of Cities
SSN 194 Religion and Social Change		URBST 214 Urban Religious Movements
SSN 210 Politics of Sexuality		URBST 114 Sexual Variance

We confirm that the following courses will earn elective credit in our department. These credits can count towards the Queens College Urban Studies major.

La Guardia CC Urban Studies course	will earn	QC Urban Studies elective credit
ELN194 Puerto Rican Community Minority Group Exp.		URBST 220 Elective
SSN 189 The Urban Economy		URBST 220 elective
SSN 192 Practical Politics in NYC		URBST 320 elective
SSN 240 History of NYC		URBST 220 elective or HIST 285 History of the City of NY
SSN 280 Urban Black Psychology		URBST 220 elective

All of LaGuardia's other Urban Studies courses will earn Queens College unrestricted elective credit upon transfer as follows. These credits will not count towards the major.

La Guardia CC course	will earn	QC elective credit
AMN211 Travel Tourism and Hospitality		Unrestricted Elective
AMN195 Profiles and Prospects of Business in NYC		Unrestricted Elective
ELN120 Foundations of American Education		Unrestricted Elective
ENN191 Art, Politics and Protest		Unrestricted Elective
ENN195 Violence in American Art and Culture		Unrestricted Elective
ENN198 Creative Writing Workshop		Unrestricted Elective
ELN101 Introduction to Bilingualism		Unrestricted Elective
HSN 110 Perspectives on Homelessness		Unrestricted Elective
HUN191 Photo Journalism: An Introduction		Unrestricted Elective
HUN192 Art and Society		Unrestricted Elective
HUN195 Art in New York		Unrestricted Elective
HUN196 Film and New York City		Unrestricted Elective
HUN245 The New York Theater Experience		Unrestricted Elective or Drama Major Elective
SSN190 Leadership		Unrestricted Elective

The following LaGuardia Urban Studies courses will receive transfer credit from other QC departments. These credits will transfer as indicated below.

ENN/SSN 193 Ideal Societies	Soc E0167 Sociology
ENN240 Literature of the City	ENGL396 Studies in Language, Literature and Culture
HUN180 Introduction to Intercultural Communication	MEDST259 Cultural Factors in Communication
SSN186 Sociology of the Black Community	SOC272 Blacks in American Society

Sincerely,

Leonard S. Rodberg
Professor and Chair